Beneficiaries

Rapha House is working to combat human trafficking in Cambodia, Thailand, and Haiti. Their goal is to help girls achieve lasting freedom from a desperate future by providing education, vocational training, care & counseling.

Purchased is a Central Indiana organization that is empowering local communities to end modern day slavery by investing in youth through educational opportunities and to become allies against sexual exploitation. Purchased also collaborates with other organizations, including Rapha House, to provide survivor support to victims of trafficking.

Human Trafficking

- ~ $32 billion industry
- ~ 27 million enslaved around the world today
- ~ 100,000 - 300,000 U.S. children are trafficked each year
- ~ 161 countries affected

Course Information

The 4 mile walk/run will be held on the Pennsy Trail.
The start/finish line will be just south of the downtown Greenfield Courthouse and will follow the trail east for two miles and then two miles back to the Greenfield Courthouse plaza. One mile option available.
